

CRS Recruiting will focus on the construction-specific sourcing, selection and placement of Executive, Risk, Safety, Claims and Human Resource Managers.

CRS Recruiting prides itself on sourcing elite staff that are highly skilled with many years of experience working directly in the construction and real estate financing sectors. We strive to be the Navy SEALs of our industry in that our placements have been intentionally selected and trained to provide the highest quality of service to our clients. In the construction industry where new and ever changing risk is a constant, the CRS team focuses on the proactive risk management advisory process, not just the product.

We know the industry

CRS has provided highly specialized risk management, brokerage and surety placement to the construction industry for over eight years. We understand the intricacies of the construction industry and will work intensively with our clients to ensure each candidate is a perfect fit.

We know you

As a national caliber risk management team we pride ourselves on hiring elite employees with strong character and values. The idea for CRS Recruiting was client driven and a product of our close relationship and ongoing commitment to deliver industry best solutions.

We offer an arsenal of elite talent

By leveraging our elite team's expertise and nationwide network, our clients have access to a robust network of qualified candidates. CRS will provide a customized placement service that will deliver highly qualified candidates able to have a direct positive impact on our client's bottom line.

Our Process

We will spend time with you one on one to clearly understand the personality and skill set you are looking to add to your organization. Using your input, we will develop a job description that meets your objectives and will personally interview potential candidates to ensure they are the "Right Fit" for your company. Our goal is to identify candidates who can become immediate contributors and long term employees.

The CRS professionals are above and beyond and truly unique in their level of expertise not only in what they do but in also understanding what we do and to that end we would use CRS unhesitatingly above and beyond any national firm engaged in similar activities.
